

SMITH & BROCK

EXPERTLY SELECTED, PROUDLY DELIVERED

WEEKLY PRODUCT UPDATE - 11/03/19

Hello all, not much changes from last week but we have now the first of wild morels from Turkey. Also the first English asparagus are in! if you like asparagus, we spotted fabulous white asparagus in Rungis so could order some for you if you are interested.

Worth putting on the menu this week are purple sprouting broccoli, Jersey Royal, wild garlic, all sorts of artichokes (baby, globe, Jerusalem), very good English Cauliflowers and leeks...

Mangoes standard and airfreight are all superb!

If you are tight on budget, root veg such as beetroot, celeriac and swede, are all very good quality - nice and large.

English forced rhubarb is just awesome! As well as Spanish blood oranges.

Egyptian pink/wet garlic is very good!

Don't miss the very rare sea kale! They also call it the asparagus of the sea! You must try!

WASHED SALAD

We are proud to be working with Bryans Salads...

...they do a big range of washed salads. The seasonal mix is excellent value for money and offers a great basic mix with lollo rosso, frisee, red chard...

We stock diced Cos lettuce, washed spinach, washed rocket....

Please enquire for the full Bryans range.

GUERNSEY BARISTA MILK

We are adding a new range to our milk offer! So far, we have had standard milk, organic milk and now we will be offering “posh” milk from Guernsey island!

They are favored by coffee shops as their milk has a high fat content and froths up well. It froths so well, perhaps you might use less milk? And it taste and look so good!

Not only this milk is perfect to add to coffee and tea but imagine making great bechamel sauce and fab custard!
