

SMITH & BROCK

EXPERTLY SELECTED, PROUDLY DELIVERED

WEEKLY PRODUCT UPDATE - 07/10/19

The last few days have been drier than earlier on last week and we still manage to get berries from Kent! Even Hugh Lowe farm who supply our strawberries, whom we thought were done prematurely for this year are still managing to send us a descent volume.

Runner beans, broad beans and peas are on their last few days. Cucumbers and tomatoes still a bit expensive, but not too bad... Sweet potatoes, broccoli, cauliflower are good quality and back to normal price.
