

SMITH & BROCK

EXPERTLY SELECTED, PROUDLY DELIVERED

WEEKLY PRODUCT UPDATE - 18/11/19

Lots of nice produce coming from the UK despite the cold and wet weather! Chris Molyneux has some truly amazing kale and cabbages... even treviso and tardivo!
(see bit further down)

On the fruit section, lots of choices of pears and apples. We have some great Sharon fruit and pineapples too!

WILD MUSHROOMS

We are moving to weekly pricing for our wild mushrooms, effective from today. We are starting to sell much more and we are working well with suppliers on the continent as well as in the UK.

In order to provide you with the best value product we are moving away from monthly pricing. The nature of this product, being wild as opposed to cultivated, means that it doesn't really work with a monthly price. Currently we either sit on a price which is out of date and makes us uncompetitive or prices jump and we end up selling at a loss.

We appreciate that this is an additional administrative task each week but we hope that it will benefit your margins and allow you to use what is seasonal and therefore best priced.

Our woodland and wild mixes are a good way of working with what's available if you're happy with us picking what goes in the mix.
